

Christmas for the Kids of Morrow

December 12, 2012, the City of Morrow Police Department headed up a Christmas event for 21 children of Morrow Elementary. These children were ones that would not otherwise experience the wonders of receiving gifts this Christmas. At the event the children and their families were treated to dinner. Afterwards, the kids learn the reindeer dance with Miss Karen, and had the chance to sit on Santa's lap.

Mayor JB Burke kicked off the event followed by a short speech by Chief Leighty. The focus of the evening was on the children. The City of Morrow employees and residents volunteered, sponsored children and watched the wonder and experienced the joy of bringing happiness to these children. Thanks to Morrow Elementary Principal, Ms. Burroughs, for her assistance in making this happen.

Special thanks to Mayor Burke, Jeff Eady, Chief Leighty, Becky & Bob Huie, Sara Moore, Cee Viola, Jim Duckworth, Ray Aballo, Craig Drummond, Goody Johnson, Tiana Ortiz, Erica Ortiz, Denise Ortiz, Laura Troutt, Marti Tracy, Becky Zebe, Evyonne Browning, David and Jennifer Schiff, Tommy & Hal White, and Dayna Biles.

MERRY CHRISTMAS!
